Report of the Board of Directors

OFI FUND - RS Global Convertible Bond

2022 will stay for a long time in our memories, all asset classes ended the year in negative territories: on the equity side, -19,5% for the MSCI World, in US -19,4% for the S&P500 and -39,9% for the Nasdaq Techno, in Europe -10,6% for the Stoxx 600, and in Asia -9,4% for the Nikkei, -15,5% for HK and -15,1% in Mainland China (Shanghai Composite). Credit spreads widen a lot, both in Europe (+232bp for the Itraxx Xover 5Y at 474bp) and US (+191bp at 484bp for the CDX HY 5Y), but the most impressive move was on interest rates, which rallied a lot following several hikes coming from all the Central Banks, mainly the Fed and BCE (+275bp for German 10y yields ended the year at +2,57%, and +236bp for US 10y yields reaching +3,87%). On the convertible bond side, all the technical drivers impacted valuations (equity, credit spreads and interest rate) except the implied volatility which gained roughly 3-4pts, not enough to ease the decline. All in all, convertible bond performances were in dark red in all areas: -21,6% in the US (hedged in €), -15,8% in Europe (€), -10,7% in Asia ex-Japan (€) and -3,2% in Japan (€).

Outflows were massive and concentrated at the beginning and at the end of the year, the total amount got to -€8,5bn (i.e 14% of AUM), particularly on global funds.

Regarding the primary market, following two exceptional years, 2022 was disappointing with a total issued of $38,5bn (-72% compared to previous year). 74% of issuances came from Americas, 17% from EMEA, 8% from Asia ex-Japan and only 1% from Japan. The most represented sectors were Health Care (27%), Technology (20%) and Travel & Leisure (12%) in the US, Chemicals (20%), Food, Beverage & Tobacco (13%) and Utilities (13%) in Europe, Real Estate (51%) and Technology (31%) in Asia. In EMEA, main issuer countries were France (47%), Germany (23%) and South Africa (12%), and in Asia, issuances were labeled mostly in HKD (51%), USD (22%) and AUD (14%).

OFI FUND - RS Global Convertible Bond ended the year with a -18,31% performance compared to -17,84% for its benchmark. Over the year, we remained invested in our leading trends linked to global healthcare improvement and well-being, new technologies, and the shift in consumption behaviours. We continued to increase our investments in more cyclical profiles, we invested new positions in the energy sector (especially in Natural Gas to catch the mispricing on energy prices) and in companies linked to Asia reopening, such as Travel & Leisure companies (maybe a bit too early). Earlier in the year, following Ukraine's invasion by Russia, a bank exposure has been taken after a massive drop on financial markets and banking sector in particular, through Futures on EuroStoxx Bank and Call options on Société Générale. All in all, the main performance driver was mainly Energy (+37bps) while the worst performers were Technology (-478bps), Healthcare (-278bps), Travel & Leisure (-223bps), Telecommunications (-184bps), Retail (-183bps), Industrial Goods & Services (-151bps)... In terms of geographical area, USA contributed for -1048bps, Europe -393bps, Asia ex_Japan -191bps and Japan -81bps.

The portfolio ended the year with a 31% exposure in Europe, 49% in America, 11% in Asia ex-Japan and 5% in Japan. All currencies were hedged during the exercise. The final metrics are 37% equity sensitivity, 1,8 interest rates sensitivity, a current yield of 0,6% with an average maturity of 3,2 years.

OFI FUND - Euro Breakeven Inflation

For the whole calendar 2022 exercise, the fund registered a net performance of +10.81% (XL-shares), compared with its iBoxx EUR Breakeven 7-15Y benchmark at +12.74%.

No massive changes have occurred in the fund and its positioning due to its process. In a context of massive rise in breakeven inflation, the underperformance is mainly due to management fees and a structural small cash bucket to cope with derivatives margin calls and required deposits. All in all, the fund had a slightly smaller breakeven sensitivity than its benchmark. Regarding the slightly lower exposure in terms of breakeven sensitivity, this also resulted in an investment in the 5-7y segment which is, by construction, out of the benchmark. This positioning has been wrong except for the French curve with a huge overperformance of the French OATi inflation breakeven over the OATei (indexed on European inflation).

Back to the market, this NAV's sharp rise illustrates the jump in the European breakevens in 2022, following an already sharp rise in 2021, and the realized inflation which brought a very strong carry. The 5y-10y segment has risen by 50bps in average with a slight curve's steepening. The rise had been much stronger at the beginning of the war but the central banks' strong reaction to fight the inflation has put under pressure the breakevens in the second part of the year. Indeed, the Fed has pushed its rates up from 0.25% to 4.5% when the ECB did +250bps, exiting its NIRP (-0.50%) to finish 2022 at +2% (Deposit Rate).

In the meantime, following the ECB's monetary policy normalization, the nominal rates have jumped strongly : the 10-year Bunds ended up the year with a +275bps (2.57%) in a massive flattening movement. The French 10Y rate underperformed with a +292bps rise and the Italian one as well (+354bps). Despite the ECB's hawkishness, and the real 10-year German rate has risen less (+239bps).

The European inflation, which was at +5.0% YoY (all items) at the end of 2021, ended the year at +9.2% YoY. This huge inflation acceleration was due to the consequences of the war on the energy and food prices. Moreover, thanks to fiscal policies and comfortable savings rates, the companies have had still room to pass-through the intrants prices rises. Excluding energy, food, tobacco and alcohol prices, the European "core" inflation has closed 2022 at a level of +5.2% coming from +2.6% a year before.

OFI FUND - RS Act4 Social Impact and OFI FUND - RS Actions Européennes

2022 was a difficult year. Politically, the year started with a focus on Russia's invasion of Ukraine, and its impact on energy prices in particular.

From a policy perspective, monetary tightening was the name of the game. The Fed started its tightening campaign in March with a 25bp hike and an end to its QE program.

The ECB lagged this, with a 50bp rate hike in July, and 75bp in September and October.

On the economic front, the main driver of 2022 has been stickier-than-expected inflation and its implication for monetary policy. H1 saw continued upside inflation surprises across the globe driven by higher energy prices on the back of Russia's invasion of Ukraine and higher good prices due to continued supply chain pressures, including logistic prices.

There was wide-spread weakness across the asset classes in 2022. All asset class underperforming inflation. From a sector view, within commodities energy is up 42.3% and outperformed industrial metals which are down 7.6%.

Global equities posted significant losses this year in response to aggressive rate hikes by the Fed and other central banks. OFI Fund RS – ACT4 Social Impact is down -13.90% and underperformed the benchmark, -12.3%.

Value stocks have significantly outperformed growth stocks both this year and over the last quarter. This can be largely explained by the high starting valuations for growth stocks, and the effect of rising interest rates. This trend has impacted the fund which has a structural bias on growth companies.

Nevertheless, some cyclical value stocks have fallen a long way especially in the Commodity and construction space with recession expected in Europe and slowdown in China due to the zero Covid policy.

Energy (O&G) is the only sector to achieve a positive performance in 2022. Financials have benefited from higher interest rates and better margin outlook. Defensives sectors like staples and healthcare have outperformed while cyclical have underperformed. The fund had a bias towards cyclicals rather than defensive sector and a cautious stance on consumer.

The relative underperformance of the fund is a combination of negative sector allocation and a positive stock selection. Negative contribution is from the overweight on technology that has been reinforced in the last quarter of the year with the introduction of ASML (equipment for the semi-industry). It is also the biggest positive selection effect with the performance of Edenred (+27%). Edenred is one of the leading operators in transactional solutions for companies, employees and merchants. It has a strong portfolio of solution and is beneficiary from higher inflation and the rise in interest rates. The next negative contribution comes from our underweight in the energy sector (Oil & Gas). Part of the reason is due to our ESG Oil&Gas exclusion Policy and ESG criteria integration. The biggest positive contribution comes from the strong performance of the two healthcare companies Novo Nordisk (+29%) and AstraZeneca (+25%). Gains for Novo are underpinned by its GLP-1 drugs for diabetes (Ozempic) and obesity (Wegovy). Opportunities are huge everywhere with Saxenda in Australia, in Brazil or in the UK. The group is also very bullish about perspectives for GLP1 drugs in China where its journey is just beginning. Another positive contribution comes from Acciona Energia within the utilities. It's a pure player in renewable generation with the target to reach 25GW of installed base in 2025 compared to 11GW in 2022. This company has an attractive valuation, higher merchant exposure to spot price of electricity compared to peers and strong potential of growth (in solar and regionally in the US). The quality and transparency of the company in terms of ESG and social impact have confirmed our single position in the in sector. In the fourth quarter we have increase our exposure to the energy transition theme with the introduction of Vestas (Wind turbine manufacturer) as we believe that the bulk of negative factors where well known and well-priced in the stock even though the earning recovery should be more geared to 2024.

At the end of the year the social impact score of the funds is 85,6 compared to 68,5 for the benchmark (STOXX600 ex-UK). 88% of the asset under management is invested in the best scores (1st and 2nd quintiles out of the 5).

The Q1 exposure have increased by +17% compared to 2021.

2023 will be a year where stock selection after the mean reversion to value stocks that should be more balanced on the fundamentals of companies and less on the macro and politics. A lot of support in a slowing down economy should be driven by green capex thanks to Inflation Reduction Act in the US and the Green Deal in Europe.

OFI FUND - RS Act4 Positive Economy

2022 was a difficult year. Politically, the year started with a focus on Russia's invasion of Ukraine, and its impact on energy prices in particular.

From a policy perspective, monetary tightening was the name of the game. The Fed started its tightening campaign in March with a 25bp hike and an end to its QE program. The ECB lagged this, with a 50bp rate hike in July and 75bp in September and October.

On the economic front, the main driver of 2022 has been stickier-than-expected inflation and its implication for monetary policy. H1 saw continued upside inflation surprises across the globe driven by higher energy prices on the back of Russia's invasion of Ukraine and higher good prices due to continued supply chain pressures, including logistic prices.

There was wide-spread weakness across the asset classes in 2022. All asset class underperforming inflation. From a sector view, within commodities energy is up 42.3% and outperformed industrial metals which are down 7.6%.

Global equities posted significant losses this year in response to aggressive rate hikes by the Fed and other central banks. OFI Fund RS – ACT4 Positive Economy (IC) is down -21,0% and underperformed the benchmark, -12.3%.

Value stocks have significantly outperformed growth stocks both this year and over the last quarter. This can be largely explained by the high starting valuations for growth stocks and the effect of rising interest rates. This trend has impacted the fund which has a structural bias on growth companies.

Nevertheless, some cyclical value stocks have fallen a long way especially in the Commodity and construction space with recession expected in Europe and slowdown in China due to the zero Covid policy.

Energy (O&G) is the only sector to achieve a positive performance in 2022, financials have benefited from higher interest rates and better margin outlook. Defensives sectors like staples and healthcare have outperformed while cyclical have underperformed.

The asset allocation contribution, as a result of the stock picking is neutral thanks to positive contribution from energy overweight. Within Energy the funds is only exposed to renewable companies or diversified players like Neste Oil, Vestas Wind and Waga Energy. Within the sector Aker Carbon Capture had a very poor performance over the year. The world cannot decarbonize fully without carbon capture and storage and the opportunity is huge. The company is exposed to regulation in two ways with carbon prices, to justify the cost of installing and operating CCS facilities. But this year the company was late to secure major projects. The biggest negative contribution is from industrials. Within industrials growth stocks as Nibe or Tomra systems as well as more cyclical stocks like Saint Gobain in the building materials underperformed. All these names are part of the energy transition and circular economy themes of the fund. Two small caps, Alfen and Industria de Nora outperformed. They were introduced this year. Alfen is a company that is well positioned to reap the benefits of long term growth trends that extends far beyond 2030, such as the switch to renewable energy and the widespread adoption of electric vehicles in Europe. Industria de Nora is a world leader in electrochemistry, with electrodes used in industrial production and now for green hydrogen. We bought Vestas Wind during the fourth quarter as we expect order intake by year end and potential benefit from the new US Inflation Reduction Act by selling Siemens Energy.

Another positive contribution comes from the positions of Novo Nordisk and AstraZeneca in the pharma sector. In addition to their defensive profile, they are able to deliver good momentum on their top line growth thanks to a dynamic pipeline and new growth areas.

At the end of the year, the breakdown of the four themes is 43% on the energy transition, 19% on social inclusion, 20% on preservation of natural resources and 18% on Health-well-being and security.

OFI FUND - RS China Equity All Shares

In 2022 since inception in July, the MSCI China All Shares Net USD Index was down 13.6% in EUR (-13.0% in USD), underperforming the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (-7.64% in EUR) and the MSCI World Index (-4.27% in EUR). In this context, OFI FUND- RS CHINA EQUITY ALL SHARES was down 14% since inception in July, against a benchmark index who dropped by 13.6%.

2022 has been a challenging year for emerging markets dominated by inflation, rising US interest rates, war in Ukraine, and China's Zero-Covid-Policy. Meanwhile the Hong Kong and Chinese stock markets experienced a strong rebound in December after Beijing loosened its pandemic restrictions that have constrained China's economic growth since early 2020. In early December, China announced to reopen its borders to international visitors for the first time since it imposed travel restrictions in March 2020. Incoming travelers will no longer need to quarantine - marking a significant change in the country's Covid policy.

Policy, economic, exchange rate and geopolitical expectations have improved rapidly after the Party Congress. On 23 of October, the 20th Party Congress of the Communist Party of China, was concluded with the new Politburo for next five years and President Xi was reappointed as expected. After the 20th National Congress, various ministries and commissions have made intensive statements, making the specific policy picture more elaborate and clarified. China's top economic official has fueled hopes of a more rapid recovery in 2023 after a speech was made in World Economic Forum.

The property sector, an economic pillar that had been under pressure even before the Covid outbreak, has yet to see a U-turn. Several rounds of supportive policies have been rolled out to stabilize developers' funding, construction activities and price momentum. Recently, the government has cut the loan prime rate and mortgage rate and announced further relaxation on property purchase requirements, among other supportive measures. We see the companies with solid balance sheet and prudent investment strategy to stand out and regain growth momentum once the house purchasers pick up confidence again.

As we are looking ahead into 2023, policymakers are taking concerted action to lift growth across all fronts. This is the first time since 2019 where domestic macro policies and Covid management are aligned in supporting a growth recovery. We are cautiously optimistic about China equities into 2023 and beyond. Current valuations offer reasonably attractive opportunities despite challenges to find the bottom of the market. Hence, investors could look beyond the near-term uncertainties and position for mid- to long-term recovery. We believe investors should not lose sight of the underlying secular trends that could drive future earnings, such as digitalization, ESG-related imperatives, and rising middle-class consumption in China.

- the statement of net assets as at 31 December 2022;
- the statement of operations and changes in net assets for the year then ended;
- the schedule of investments as at 31 December 2022; and
- the notes to the financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (Law of 23 July 2016) and with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as adopted for Luxembourg by the “Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier” (CSSF). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the “Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements” section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements. Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our audit report thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;

- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

5 - Performance fees

The Management Company may receive a performance fee out of the assets of the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Management Company will charge an outperformance fee when there is a positive return compared to the benchmark; then the fee is calculated as follows: for each valuation period during which the calculated return is greater than that of the benchmark, an outperformance fee is deducted as set out in the table above.

The outperformance in the reference currency represents the difference between:

- the Net Asset Value per Share (the "NAVPS") on a particular day, including fixed fees (management fees, administration fees, subscription fees), but not including any provisions for cumulated previous outperformance fees;

and

- the theoretical composite indexed NAVPS on that same day including the composite index's performance and the effects of subscriptions and redemptions.

The outperformance fee is provisioned for on each NAVPS calculation date. Accounting for outperformance fee provisions includes both allocations and reversals, as a reversal could occur if the return difference calculated on a particular day is negative. Provisions are limited at zero (no negative provisions). When performance since the start of the Valuation Period is negative, provisions for outperformance fees are limited to a maximum of 1.00% of the Net Asset Value, except for OFI FUND-Euro Breakeven Inflation for which the maximum is 0.50%.

When calculating this return, by "valuation period" the Sub-Fund's fiscal year is taken into consideration. The calculation is reset to zero at the beginning of each fiscal year.

The Management Company has implemented a swing price mechanism and the performance fee is charged on the basis of the unswung NAV.

The weight on NAV of the performance fees charged on each share classes.

The outperformance fees rates by class of Share for each Sub-Fund, are set out in the following schedule:

11 - Swing Price

Sub-Funds may suffer a reduction of their Net Asset Value (“NAV”) as a result of direct and indirect transaction costs incurred due to the purchase and selling of underlying securities caused by the investors’ subscriptions and redemptions requests. This is known as dilution. To reduce the impact of such dilution and protect the interests of existing shareholders, the Company has implemented a swing pricing mechanism where a Sub-Fund’s NAV price is adjusted downwards or upwards in order to ensure that the cost of the underlying portfolio activity is borne only by those investors who ask the respective subscriptions / redemptions and not by the rest of the existing shareholders.

If one day of a NAV calculation the net amount of subscriptions / redemptions orders on all share classes exceeds a preset threshold, which is determined by the Management Company upon objective criteria and expressed as a percentage of a Sub-Fund’s NAV, the NAV may be adjusted upwards or downwards respectively in order to take into account the costs of the adjustment attributable respectively to the orders for subscriptions / redemptions.

The NAV of each class of shares is calculated separately however any adjustment will have, in percent, the same impact on the total NAV of the Sub-Fund. The Management Company determines, on a regular basis, the costs and thresholds on the base of, amongst others, transactions costs, buy-sell spreads as well as any taxes applicable to the Company.

To the extent that this adjustment is related to the net balance of subscriptions / redemptions in the Sub-Fund, it is not possible to accurately predict whether such swing pricing will apply at some point in the future. Therefore, it is not possible to accurately predict how frequently the Management Company will make such adjustments. Investors should note that the volatility of the NAV may not only reflect that of the securities in the portfolio due to the implementation of swing pricing as explained before.

The Management Company may decide on exceptional cases (e.g. mergers, liquidations, launch of new Sub-Funds) to suspend the application of the swing price mechanism.

The Sub-Fund OFI FUND - RS Global Convertible Bond is the only Sub-Fund submitted to swing price policy.

During the year ended December 31, 2022, no swing price has been applied.

Environmental and/or social characteristics

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not lay down a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

<input type="checkbox"/> It made sustainable investments with a social objective: ___%	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> It promoted E/S characteristics, but did not make any sustainable investments

To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

Ofi Invest ESG Global Convertible Bond (the “Fund”) promoted environmental and/or social characteristics through two systematic approaches:

- 1- Normative and sectoral exclusions.
- 2- A set of ESG requirements.

The Fund does not have an ESG benchmark as a reference benchmark.

This SRI-labeled Fund has followed a Best-in-Class approach that excludes 20% of the issuers in each sector of the investment universe that are the least virtuous in terms of ESG practices, and only retains in its portfolio companies that integrate ESG practices. It has also complied with the requirements of the SRI label concerning the monitoring of performance indicators.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

● How did the sustainability indicators perform?

As of December 30th, 2022, the performance of the sustainability indicators to measure the achievement of the Fund's environmental and/or social characteristics is as follows:

The ESG score at portfolio level has reached 5,90 out of 10 and the ESG score of its benchmark is 5,63.

As part of the SRI Label awarded to the Fund, two ESG indicators promoting social and environmental characteristics have been piloted at the level of the Fund and its benchmark. Their respective performances as of 30th, December 2022 are as follows:

1. The portfolio's financed emissions on scopes 1 and 2 represent 38,04 tons of CO2 equivalent per million euros compared to its SRI universe whose financed emissions represent 95,24 tons of CO2 equivalent per million euros.
2. The share of controversial issuers considered to be in violation of at least one of the 10 Global Compact principles is null (0%) compared to its benchmark, whose share of controversial issuers considered to be in violation of at least one of the 10 Global Compact principles is 0,53%.

The monitoring of the above-mentioned indicators in the management tools makes it possible to affirm that there were no significant variations in the performance of the indicators throughout the reporting period considered, between January 1st, 2022, and December 30th, 2022.

For more information on these sustainability indicators and their calculation method, please refer to the Fund's prospectus and its precontractual annex.

● ...and compared to previous periods?

This annex to the annual report containing periodic information for the Fund in accordance with Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1288 supplementing the SFDR Regulation is the first to be published.

● What were the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made and how did the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

Not applicable.

● How did the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

Not applicable.

How were the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors taken into account?

The EU Taxonomy sets out a “do not significant harm” principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific Union criteria.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the Union criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the Union criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

The Management Company has implemented assessment methods on the invested issuers for each of the principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors:

- Due to OFI Invest Asset Management's exclusion policies, the following thresholds were applied to certain PAIs:
 - Coal and Oil & Gas sector policies. These exclusion policies establish de facto exclusion thresholds at the issuer level on the PAI 4 (“Exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel sector”): thresholds on the development of new projects involving the use of thermal coal (as soon as > 0) and on the activity in coal and oil & gas. It also indirectly applies a filter on investments in companies with a high impact on PAIs 1, 2 and 3 (“GHG emissions”, “carbon footprint” and “GHG intensity of investee companies”);
 - Exclusion policy on non-compliance with the UN Global Compact Principles. This policy establishes de facto an issuer-level exclusion threshold on the PAI 10 (“Violations of UN Global Compact principles and Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises”): as soon as the issuer faces controversies of high or very high severity regarding the UN Global Compact Principles. It also indirectly applies a filter on PAI 11 (“Lack of processes and compliance mechanisms to monitor compliance with UN Global Compact principles and OECD Guidelines for multinational Enterprises”);
 - Controversial Weapons Policy. This policy establishes de facto an issuer-level exclusion threshold on PAI 14, as soon as it exceeds 0%.
- The SRI score described above considers issues that in their majority relate to negative externalities as defined by the PAIs: carbon emissions, renewable energy, impact on biodiversity, composition of the Board, etc. The maturity of the issues (e.g., the scope of coverage) and the availability of data make impact measurement more or less possible, but all issues are considered in the fundamental analysis of each investment line. The investment strategy leads to the exclusion of 20% of the worst rated SRI securities from the investment universe.

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

- The engagement and voting policy. The engagement policy applies to all investments in stocks and focuses mainly on three pillars: climate change mitigation, biodiversity and social. Climate change and women on board are considered through in our voting policy through Say on Climate resolutions and criteria on Board composition and functioning.
- The monitoring of social and environmental controversies. It is part of the weekly analysis of controversies within the OFI Invest AM group and it applies to all the ESG issues that are integrated in the ESG rating.

As a result, the Fund has considered the principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors during the reporting period considered, between 1st January 2022 and 30th December 2022 in a qualitative way.

For more information, please refer to the "Statement on the consideration of Principal Adverse Impacts of our investment decisions on sustainability factors" available on the OFI Invest website.

How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

The Management Company has implemented assessment methods on the invested issuers for each of the principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors:

1- Due to OFI Invest Asset Management's exclusion policies, the following thresholds were applied to certain PAIs:

- o Coal and Oil & Gas sector policies. These exclusion policies establish de facto exclusion thresholds at the issuer level on the PAI 4 (“Exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel sector”): thresholds on the development of new projects involving the use of thermal coal (as soon as > 0) and on the activity in coal and oil & gas. It also indirectly applies a filter on investments in companies with a high impact on PAIs 1, 2 and 3 (“GHG emissions”, “carbon footprint” and “GHG intensity of investee companies”);

- o Exclusion policy on non-compliance with the UN Global Compact Principles. This policy establishes de facto an issuer-level exclusion threshold on the PAI 10 (“Violations of UN Global Compact principles and Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises”): as soon as the issuer faces controversies of high or very high severity regarding the UN Global Compact Principles. It also indirectly applies a filter on PAI 11 (“Lack of processes and compliance mechanisms to monitor compliance with UN Global Compact principles and OECD Guidelines for multinational Enterprises”);

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

o Controversial Weapons Policy. This policy establishes de facto an issuer-level exclusion threshold on PAI 14, as soon as it exceeds 0%.

- 2- The SRI score described above considers issues that in their majority relate to negative externalities as defined by the PAIs: carbon emissions, renewable energy, impact on biodiversity, composition of the Board, etc. The maturity of the issues (e.g., the scope of coverage) and the availability of data make impact measurement more or less possible, but all issues are considered in the fundamental analysis of each investment line. The investment strategy leads to the exclusion of 20% of the worst rated SRI securities from the investment universe.
- 3- The engagement and voting policy. The engagement policy applies to all investments in stocks and focuses mainly on three pillars: climate change mitigation, biodiversity and social. Climate change and women on board are considered through in our voting policy through Say on Climate resolutions and criteria on Board composition and functioning.
- 4- The monitoring of social and environmental controversies. It is part of the weekly analysis of controversies within the OFI Invest AM group and it applies to all the ESG issues that are integrated in the ESG rating.

As a result, the Fund has considered the principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors during the reporting period considered, between 1st January 2022 and 30th December 2022 in a qualitative way.
